

Religious Institutions

Throughout our 40 years of providing consulting Civil Engineering and Land Surveying services, Haeger has collaborated with congregations, their architects and builders on improvement projects for religious institutions. From large projects, such as major roadway, parking and auditorium improvements to Willow Creek Community Church in South Barrington, to smaller land surveys or site selection consulting, Haeger has a proud history of service.

Past Haeger Project Experience:

Willow Creek Community Church - South Barrington
 Messiah Evangelical Lutheran Church - Wauconda
 Harvest Bible Chapel - Rolling Meadows
